The Inaugural Speech was given by Mr. Jeetendra Mohapatra, In- Charge EIC, & Lecturer OT Dept. NILD, Kolkata. He discussed about Relevance of Rabindranath Tagore’s thoughts on education today. In order to explore his thoughts on education and to assess his relevance in today’s Special educational field, the EIC,NILD,KOLKATA has decided to conduct a webinar on this concept. Moreover, he also discussed about the detailed services in Cross Disability Early Intervention Centre, NILD Kolkata.

Prof Bishnupada Nanda beautifully linked the thinking of Rabindranath Tagore on Persons with disability by quoting from his literal creature. He uphold different characters created by Rabindranath Tagore, who were differently abled either in the form of Deaf and Dumb, having intellectual disability or with different physical deformities in his webinar lecture. Being in the ancient society, how Tagore thought of the concept of inclusion, it’s long term relevance in the society, the parent’s role and how to empower the differently abled people in the society was also a part of the lecture. Interaction session with the patients and caregiver was also held for half an hour.

The total number of participants was 100 which included parents and caregivers of children, professionals (Occupational Therapist, Physiotherapist, Speech Language Therapist, Audiologist, Psychologists, Social worker, Special Educator), student, faculty and staffs of NILD(D).

Vote of thanks was delivered by Ms. Priyanka Ghosh, Clinical Psychologist, EIC, NILD, Kolkata.

Mr Kunal Banerjee, Special Educator(ID), Cross Disability-Early Intervention Centre, NILD, Kolkata was the coordinator of the Webinar. Mrs. Rupsha Pal, Special Educator(H.I), Cross Disability-Early Intervention Centre, NILD, Kolkata was the moderator of the program.
