

INTERNATIONAL NURSES DAY, (2024)

Theme: “Our nurses. Our future. The economic power of care”.

Date: 13.05.2024

Venue: Auditorium, National Institute for Locomotor Disability (Divyangjan), Kolkata.

Participants: Students and Faculty of the Institute.

International Nurses Day, 2024 was observed in National Institute of Locomotor Disabilities (Divyangjan), Kolkata. The program was organized by Dept. of Rehab Nursing, NILD, Kolkata under guidance of Mrs. Sumona Mondal, Staff Nurse, Nursing Service, NILD, Kolkata.

The celebration began with the distribution of fruits to 20 indoor patients, followed by the official start of the event in the auditorium.

FRUIT DISTRIBUTION TO INDOOR PATIENTS

The program began with an inaugural session, starting with a welcome address by Madam S. Srimani from the Department of Rehab Nursing (Academic). This was followed by a lamp lighting ceremony performed by all the dignitaries. The theme of the year was highlighted by Mrs. Sumana Mondal, nursing staff, NILD. All nursing staff, students, and guests took the nursing pledge together. Madam S. Srimani garlanded the portrait of Florence Nightingale and a brief biography of her life was provided. A snapshot of the Department of Rehab Nursing's activities was presented by an M.Sc. Nursing student. Prizes were awarded to the highest scorers from the batches of 2021-2023 and 2022-2024. Speeches were delivered by the guests: Dr. A. Equebal, AD(T), NILD, Mrs. Sanchita Banerjee, Executive Member of the Trained Nurses Association of India (TNAI), Dr. Subrata Sarkar, Principal of Sister Nivedita Nursing Academy, and Dr. Lata Mandal, Guest Faculty, NILD. The inaugural session concluded with a presidential speech by Dr. Lalit Narayan, Director, NILD.

INAUGURAL SESSION

The Ex-nursing staff of the Institute has joined the programme and shared their experience with the audience. Convocation ceremony arranged for batch (2021-2023) and certificate distribution done followed by cultural programme by the students.

CONVOCATION CEREMONY

The program concluded with vote of thanks and distribution of refreshments to the participants.